

Half Day Safari from Durban – December 30, 31, & January 1

📍 Durban, eThekweni Metropolitan Municipality, KwaZulu-Natal, 4023, South Africa

This half day tour includes two wildlife reserves, the Natal Lion Park and Tala Game Reserve to create an exciting safari experience in under 6 hours.

The tours first stop is the Natal Lion Park which is home to a variety of wildlife including Lion, African and Asian Elephants as well as Rhino. There our guide will drive around the park in search of the Elephants before entering the Lion's enclosure to marvel at the pride of Lions. This activity is very popular as it gives tourists a rare opportunity to enjoy the excitement of being so close to lions.

Tourists are amazed at the lion's size and beauty. Next, we visit Tala Private Game reserve that hosts a diverse selection of wildlife on a 3000 hectares reserve. Tala Game Reserve is a Rhino sanctuary and is home to over 370 bird species and wildlife that includes Rhino, Giraffe, Hippo and Eland to name a few of the bigger animals. Our guide will drive around the park in our closed vehicle to view all the wildlife and have a close look at the Rhinos. He will give insight into the wildlife ecosystem and the interesting facts about the animals.
